

Part 3:
God Invites You to Join Him
to do His work

Note to Leaders: Every Link is Different. Don't feel like you have to answer every question. Pick questions that will stir up conversation and action among your group

INTRODUCTION

God is our Father & The Father is ALWAYS at work around us and in our lives. He is always wanting to use you in His service and why not He is our 'DAD.' He is always on your case and taking you somewhere. Your Father leaves a trail of marshmallows to follow – a flat tyre may lead to an opportunity to tell your mechanic about Christ. So ask, "Hello Father, what are You up to? – what is Your will for me in this?" It is a very thrilling lifestyle to have forever treasure hunt with Him.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Share with a group about an opportunity that you missed. It may be a work/business/relationship opportunities.
2. Read 2 Corinthians 5:19–20. What amazing thing did God do in Christ (v.19a)? To whom did God entrust this amazing message (v.19b-20)? How do you feel about that? Honoured, excited, or burdensome?
3. Read John 4:35.
 - "God's Revelation Is Your Invitation." Can God be working around you and you not see it? Give some examples of how you think God might be working in your family, in your work and in your church.
 - One important factor for you to recognize the activity of God around you is that you must be living in an intimate love relationship with God. Share with the group how you can develop this intimate relationship. What has/has not worked for you?
4. "God builds character to match the assignment. He will not give a big assignment to a small character." Do you agree or disagree with this statement? Which character qualities do you have that you're happy with and which ones need improving?
5. When talking to a non-believing person, learn to make the connection to find out where God is working. Ask the kind of questions that will reveal what is happening in that person's life. Here are some examples. Can you think of anything else?
 - How can I pray for you?
 - Do you want to talk?
 - What do you see as the greatest challenge in your life?
 - What is the most significant thing happening in your life right now? • Would you tell me what God is doing in your life?
 - What is God bringing to the surface in your life?
 - What particular burden has God given you?

MOVING FORWARD

Spend time with God on a daily basis so He can reveal to you where He is at work. Life is wonderfully intriguing when you know He is up to something and He wants to involve you in it!

CHANGING YOUR MIND

The call to salvation is a call to leave a self-centered life and return to a God-centred outlook and be on mission with God.
